CITY COUNCIL APPOINTS RESIDENTS TO 2007 CITIZEN BOND ELECTION COMMITTEE,
FIRST MEETING SCHEDULED FOR JUNE 19

GLENDALÉ, Ariz. – The Glendale City Council recently appointed more than 70 residents to serve on the Citizen Bond Election Committee for a planned May 2007 bond election.

The residents, who are volunteering their time to serve on the committee, will be responsible for reviewing project suggestions by the citizens of Glendale, city boards and commissions and city staff members on potential future capital projects. The committee will present its recommendations to City Council. City Council decides which items will be included on the ballot.

The kick-off meeting is 6 p.m. Monday, June 19 in the Council Chambers at City Hall, 5850 W. Glendale Avenue. The parking garage is located at the northeast corner of Glendale and 59th Avenues. The meeting is open to the public.

Bond programs fund major city projects, like libraries, senior centers, fire and police stations and neighborhood improvements.
